Summer time!

And the livin' is easy... [Or will be after exams!]

Most people have by the time they read this finished their exams – hopefully they went well and you can now kick back and relax!

SSAGO rally is coming up soon – still time to sign up [if you read this before the rally :P]. Biggest contingent for a long time, but still not quite beating you know who. Direct any questions to the SSAGO Rep.

For those off you now not in Oxford, have a great summer and see you again soon!

P.S Having written the above, lots has since happened. None of which is the publication of this postscript. On the plus side it means you now get an extra 4 pages of PostScripty goodness! We also thank the Oxford Mail for their wonderful shot of James and Jack.

Have a good summer,
Geoffrey Hall

Chair's Report

Hello,

While I acknowledge that a chair is there to be sat on, if you wouldn't mind just shuffling a bit to the left it would be much appreciated.

Aaah, much better. So often you get these inconsiderate folk who just jump straight onto me with no thought for what I have to endure. It's not easy being a chair..

And don't even think about leaning back on me – imagine being forced to hold an elephant while standing on one leg. It's simply cruel. Not only that, the new Tory front bench has promised to introduce a sub committee to look after the welfare of chairs. It's being chaired by the MP for Cogswell, and I think the MP for Chesterfield is sitting on it as well. Thames Valle police are also providing an office to represent the long arm of the law.

So think about what you're doing next time – soon there might be laws against chair abuse thanks to this committee. Unless it folds first.....

QuoteScript

James: "Mine used to go up as well as down...it was a bit annoying".

Shell: "You've got bigger buns than me". @Luke

Lizzy: "Come on spank that tab!".

Jack: "No I'm talking to my cutlery".

James: "It's like an upside-down W...like two vegetarians that have collapsed".

Shell: "There's beer! Beer! Beer, Jack! Beer!".

Jude: "It tastes like my mum".

Shell: "Can I have a bite of your sausage? You said I was your buddy!".

Luke: "If I leave it too long it just gets bigger...put it away!".

Nick: "Have you ever trebucheted a humming bird?".

Lizzy: "You can go on the pub crawl, if you wash".

Luke: "Will there be the same grunting getting off as getting on?".

Nick: "Oh my god, it's the sound of music!".

Lizzy: "I have a bacterial infection, I don't have to make sense."

Shell: "Stick it where it needs to go".

Lizzy: "Why has it snapped to Shell's boob?"

Nick: "Just get it out Geoff".

Geoff: "PostScript will be out soon...".

The OUSGG Cocktail Book

Lizzy Horne

This week: Parchers

Finding yourself craving a fruity and refreshing beverage as the evenings grow ever warmer, but sick of the ubiquitous Pimm's? Relax and enjoy the summer with this latest addition to The OUSGG Cocktail Book™!

You will need:

2 measures peach schnapps (or 4 if it's the birthday girl's drink, and she's not looking)

3 measures pear cider

Ice cubes

A healthy sense of misadventure

Pour the schnapps over ice into a tumbler, and dilute with pear cider. Best served with savoury foodstuffs, to avoid highlighting how sickeningly sweet it is.

Message to DUSAGG if you're reading – I can't believe you read another one! Not comments about what you and your sheep get up to this time, since it was deemed inappropriate for some of our younger members...

A year in the life of OUSGG

James Baker

I thought I'd finish off the year in the manner I've become accustomed over the past year - by annoying Geoff with an article made up mostly of photos and sent in some obscure Mac format that Geoff has issues with.

SSAGO Rally Report - Cambridge

Geoff Hall

Last weekend saw the final SSAGO rally of the year, hosted by CUSAGC over in Cambridge. OUSGG had a large group [of 9] go over and a larger group [of 10] come back, thanks to Jude's late arrival in the other place.

Opening night saw a mammoth X5 exodus followed by a lot of roundabouts – apparently you can celebrate the last minibus pick-up by making sure you circumnavigate wherever possible! Once tents were pitched and we worked out who was sleeping with who, a short trip to the camp-fire rounded off the night.

On Saturday, the group was split between Punt Jousting and Spectating. Thanks to the insanely hot weather, falling in didn't matter and there were more than a few cases of sunburn!

[Honour dictates the victor must now jump in too!]

The evening saw us attempt to dance – the less said the better. [But there are videos on James' facebook page!] Followed by more fire.

On Sunday, we tried [and failed] at many medieval games, such as space hopper jousting, castle twister and water pistol archery. By 2PM we were heading back to safety aboard the X5 and looking forward to a nice shower!

Finally a quick note of thanks to Lizzy for poking us all to go, CUSAGC for hosting it and a goodbye to Nick and Lizzy who I believe are leaving the bubble...

Approval of Minutes

The minutes of the previous TGM were approved.

Matters Arising

No matters arose from the minutes.

Reports

Chair - Luke Cartey

EH has flu, which is why she isn't present at the TGM. The term has happened, and has been a moderate success. Everything was very exciting, but the pipeline has now concluded.

Chair Elect - James Baker

The pipeline is a combination of ochre and green. Nothing has really been sorted for MT yet, but it will be done over the summer.

Secretary - James Baker

We have been re-registered with the Proctors.

Treasurer - Michelle Barton

The Current Account has £642.42, the Events Account has £397.75 and the Old Members Account still has £319.49 in it as Chris Seward still hasn't claimed back his expenses. EH still owes £94 for Annual Dinner. The next Treasurer should consider getting rid of the Events Account. The Savings Account has £671.27 in it. LC raised the question of whether the money was in the best place, and MB confirmed that it is receiving a good level of interest (around £150 over 7 years). Membership Secretary - Luke Cartey

We still haven't heard from OUSU about Freshers' Fair, and as such currently don't have a booking for Freshers' Fair. We have however contacted OUSU and the Freshers' Fair booking will be open in the near future.

Summer Trip - James Baker

Summer Trip is definitely going ahead as we have now paid the full amount for it. Booklets should be going out to participants soon from the company.

Winter Walking - Nicholas Scropton

If we were booking for 2011/2012 we'd be sorted, but we're not and unfortunately everywhere that's been tried so far has been unavailable. We will probably end up going somewhere we've been recently, but if anyone has any other ideas then contact NS or LC.

Elections

Chair Elect

Geoffrey Hall was proposed by LB and seconded by TD.

No one voted against or abstained, GH was elected as Chair Elect.

Secretary

LC was proposed by JB and seconded by MB.

No one voted against or abstained, LC was elected as Secretary.

Treasurer

JS was nominated by TD and seconded by JN.

No one voted against and one person abstained, JS was elected as Treasurer.

JN agreed that he would run for Chair Elect in HT in lieu of being elected as Treasurer.

SSAGO Rep

SSAGO Rep had to be elected as the current SSAGO Rep will no longer be eligible to hold the position in MT. The election will stand for one term and will be elected again at the AGM as per usual.

JB was proposed by LC and seconded by JN.

No one voted against or abstained, JB was elected as SSAGO Rep.

Quartermaster

Contested election between LC and MB.

Show of hands goes 5-2 in MB's favour, MB is elected as Quartermaster.

PostScript Editor

LC is nominated by EH and seconded by JB.

One person voted against and one person abstained, LC was elected as PostScript Editor.

Annual Dinner Organiser

JN is nominated by TD and seconded by RO.

No one voted against and one person abstained, JN was elected as Annual Dinner Organiser.

N'n'N Organiser

GH is nominated by LB and seconded by TD.

No one voted against or abstained, GH was elected as N'n'N Organiser.

Motions

Constitutional Amendment

Proposed by JB, seconded by LC.

We propose to add the following to the constitution:

1.c. The activities of the Society will at all times be conducted in accordance with the following university policies and codes of practice in force from time to time: Integrated Equality Policy, Code of Practice on Harassment and Bullying, and Code of Practice on Freedom of Speech.

This is being added to meet the requests of the Proctors, who, from Michaelmas 2010, require our constitution to include this clause if we want to be registered with the University. Everyone voted in favour of this amendment and it was passed.

Any Other Business

OUSU Address

We've set up an address at OUSU to have OUSGG mail sent to, but we're not entirely sure it's working. MB will send us some mail to test it.

St John's Bar: 6/10 Price cheap-as
 Mini-milk! Again, Lizzy was quite excited. Unfortunately, no Callipos. Mini-milk - £0.35, Twister - £0.85, the look on Lizzy's Face - Priceless...

Rainbow: 7/10 Price £1.80

It was sadly Movenpick again. Ice-cream was still quite tasty, and they had a slightly larger range than QLCH. They also provided non-ice-cream type snacks that were a great relief by this point..

The Crown (aka The Crad): 0/10 Price unknown
 We got kicked out of here before ice-cream could be ordered, because someone (who shall remain nameless, but is, let's say, a repeat offender) forgot their idea. To be fair it was the nicest kicking out ever - they even thanked Laura for coming!

G&D's: 9/10 Price £2.05

Ah, the old faithful. Lizzy very much enjoyed her Peanut Butter ice-cream, whilst many people enjoyed White Chocolate. The original and clearly the best. So good, we went twice.

Queen's Lane Coffee House: 7/10 Price £1.95

Whilst eating our Olives ice-cream we notice that QLCH next door have Movenpick ice-cream. Given the quantities to be consumed, we decide on a Mango Sorbet, which is tasty and has whole bits of Mango in.

Olives: 6/10 Price £1.80

Normal served outside the shop, they still let us have it inside. Since it's only 6pm, everyone went for Kiddie Cones, which turn out to be huge. Shame the ice-cream is more Mr Whippy!

Patisserie Valerie: 6.5/10 Price £1.75

Came with a quite cool cup that Mike was quite enamoured by - possibly because he paid the eat-in price! Lemon Sorbet is quite tasty, but QLCH was slightly nicer.

Café crème: 8/10 all round. Price £1.80

Our first stop of the evening. Claims to serve homemade gelato are surprisingly accurate. Roche turns out to be delicious and is declared at least Alternative Crawls Sick of ice-cream? Why not try one of these:

Pizza Crawl – Burger Crawl – Sausage Crawl – Tea Crawl – Cake Crawl – Teacake Crawl
